

Subject line: Episode 3: Masculinity & Crossdressing. Secure Masculinity Podcast

Hey [Name]

In our quest to promote healthy and secure masculinity we need to address everything even less popular topics. Crossdressing is one of them.

You don't have to be a crossdresser for this episode to benefit you. However, it's far more common than one may think.

The idea is to destigmatize men's quirks whatever they may be to reduce shame, "sin", and allow everyone to be themselves. My hope is by achieving that, we can reduce mental health issues, violence, and suicide.

Here are the topics we'll discuss

- Why is crossdressing?
- Why would any man have the desire to wear women's clothing?
- Is it common?
- Is it wrong?
- Are crossdressers less masculine?
- Should we reclaim and restore masculinity due to so many soft men?
- Who are masculinity's bullies?
